

Domestic Violence

in the U.S. today:

It happens everywhere

1 in 3

women have been victims of physical violence by an intimate partner in their lifetime across

gender

1 in 5

transgendered people have suffered domestic abuse because of their gender non-conformity

4 in 10

of American Indian women are victims of intimate partner violence

across
ethnicity

15-34

year old African American women are most likely to die from a current or former intimate partner

3

women are killed each day by current or former intimate partners intimate partner

violence

1 in 7

violent crimes are between intimate partners

It's all our problem

It's time for change.
Help build a future without domestic violence.
Join us for Domestic Violence Awareness Month

