

I attended a DVAM event

I liked or shared a post on social media about #DVAM2016

I had a conversation with a colleague about ways to prevent DV

I wrote a letter to my elected official about an issue I care about

I dyed part of my hair purple/got purple extensions

I donated an old cell phone to Hopeline® from Verizon

I chose not to include a known DV abuser on my Fantasy Football team

I wrote an op-ed/blog about an issue I care about

I took the Representation Project's Pledge: therepresentationproject.org/take-the-pledge/

I wore a purple pin/ribbon for #DVAM2016

I challenged victim-blaming language

I took the No More pledge: <http://nomore.org/>

I researched a candidate for local office and feel better informed to vote

I wore purple on #PurpleThursday 10.20.16 and posted a pic on social media

I installed a purple porch light for #DVAM2016

I had conversation with a young person about healthy relationships

I donated items to a local DV program

I'M TAKING ACTION: #DVAM2016

Creating Change in Our Communities!

In order to end domestic violence, we must address the problem at the societal, community, relationship, and individual levels.
There are LOTS of ways to take action to work toward meaningful social change, and we want to acknowledge YOU.

Download and print this punch card to GET ACTIVE. Complete and check off as many as you can, and send your card to CCADV (apohl@ccadv.org) by 11/4/16 to be entered into our prize drawing.

And don't forget to share what you're doing on social media:
#DVAM2016
FB: /ColoradoCoalitionAgainstDomesticViolence
Twitter: @CCADV1

